

Extra Seat conditions

Passengers may take out the Extra seat service for which they will have to pay the additional price indicated during the purchase process (hereinafter the "Service"), expressly accepting the present conditions that will be applicable to them.

This service allows Passengers to book, in addition to their own seat, an adjoining or adjacent seat in their own name, providing they meet the present conditions.

It will only be possible to book one extra seat per Passenger, and this should always be adjoining or adjacent to the actual seat to be occupied by the Passenger.

The extra seat will be automatically assigned to the Passenger. In any event, any change made by the Passenger to a seat other than the one previously assigned shall incur the charge indicated at any given time.

The extra seat may never be used to transport luggage with a weight and dimensions such that it cannot be completely placed on the extra seat itself, cannot be properly secured with a seat belt in a stable manner, or compromises the comfort and safety of other passengers and the flight itself. It is also forbidden for the extra seat to be used to transport animals, regardless of their size or that of their carrier, or any other package, luggage or dangerous or prohibited goods in accordance with the General Conditions of Carriage of Vueling or applicable legislation.

Objects such as musical instruments or the equivalent larger than 136x47x25 centimetres in size and/or weighing more than 75 kilos will not be accepted to be transported in the extra seat, and may also be removed and loaded into the aircraft hold, at an additional charge.

At the boarding gate as well as on board, any hand luggage that does not comply with the company's regulations, i.e. exceeds the amount, weight and/or measurements stated above, may be removed and stored in the aircraft hold, at an additional charge.

Vueling shall not be held liable for any luggage or large packages that are rejected at the boarding gate and voluntarily abandoned by the Passenger.

Due to local security reasons in the country of origin or destination, certain items may not be allowed on board. This is without prejudice to the rules governing the carrying of certain products as hand luggage.

It is mandatory for passengers who hire the Service to check-in at the check-in desk and are consequently unable to do so through the Vueling website. They must check the dimensions and weight of their luggage with the staff attending them before entering the security area.

Passengers shall be held liable for any harm or damage caused to other passengers by their luggage, which may be as a result of it not being securely attached with the seat belt, unless this is through negligence on the part of Vueling.

The present Service can be offered on a discretionary basis by Vueling Airlines, S.A., according to different parameters, and Vueling reserves the right to modify its conditions at any time.

verschiedenen Parametern angeboten werden, wobei die Gesellschaft sich das Recht vorbehält, diese Bedingungen jederzeit zu ändern.
